Austar Realty Ltd Licensed (REAA 2008) | 423 Titirangi Road, Titirangi 0604

Disclosures:

- An aerial photo has been provided. This is an indicative boundary. The only way to accurately determine the boundary of a property is by obtaining a survey.
- We have noted on the Title that there is a restriction on building permanent structures on a particular area of the property. The vendors have disclosed the following:

We have done some work in the backyard. We have tidied up an existing retaining wall at the back garden area and another existing retaining wall located in front adjacent to the deck area. We have placed an additional retaining wall to the side of the fence line, which can be removed if needed. All additional work has been done with the ability to unscrew/unbolt and remove accordingly. We wanted a nicer finish so left it in place.

Should the purchaser wish the additional retaining wall to be removed prior to settlement, with prior arrangement, this can be done so at the vendor's expense.

- The spa pool doesn't heat and cool as it should.

We recommend that you get a building inspection report. We also recommend that when purchasing a property, you seek legal advice, complete due diligence and arrange your finance.

In addition, the applicant should check the Certificate of Title as it might also contain obligations relating to the land.

The text and attachments of this document should be considered together.

This Land Information Memorandum is valid as at the date of issue only.

s44A(2)(a) Information identifying any special feature or characteristics of the land

This information should not be regarded as a full analysis of the site features of this land, as there may be features that the Council is unaware of. The applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that the land is suitable for a particular purpose including development.

Site Contamination

No land contamination data are available in Council's regulatory records.

Wind Zones

Wind Zone(s) for this property: Low wind speed of 32 m/s

The wind zones are based on wind speed data specific to all building sites as outlined in NZS 3604:2011. Other factors such as topographic classes, site exposure and ground roughness determine the actual wind bracing demands and bracing elements required for the building.

For further information refer to NZS 3604:2011 Section 5 — Bracing Design

Soil Issues

Soil issues recorded. The land may not be suitable for particular development or land use purposes. A soil report may be required to/must be submitted with any building and/or resource consent application.

Effective Date	Description	Details
02/07/2008	Geotechnical report required	The owner shall not place, erect, construct or permit to remain on any part of the land any buildings unless: a.,The foundations of such residential buildings have been the subject of specific investigation and design by a registered engineer experienced in geo-mechanics who is familiar with the contents of the Soil Engineering Ltd geotechnical report dated 13 June 2007 (held in Council's records under RMA 20070725); and b.,Such specific and investigation and design referred to above takes into account the recommendation for pile foundations, to be taken down to the underlying sandstone rock at the estimated depth of five to six metres; c.,All such construction is carried out in accordance with that design to the satisfaction of the Auckland Council.

If any soil information/reports have been prepared in relation to this property, they will be available for viewing at an Auckland Council Service Centre.

Flooding

This statement entitled "Flooding" appears on all LIMs.

Known flooding information is displayed on the map attached to this LIM entitled "Special Land Features – Natural Hazards - Flooding".

Auckland Council online map viewer (Geomaps), at www.aucklandcouncil.govt.nz, which is updated from time to time.

Any proposed development may require a flooding assessment to be provided by the applicant.

The absence of flooding on the “Special Land Features - Natural Hazards - Flooding” map does not exclude the possibility of the site flooding, particularly from Overland Flow Paths which may be on other properties.

Overland Flow Path

This site (property parcel) spatially intersects with one or more Overland Flow Paths, as displayed on the map attached to this LIM entitled “Special Land Features – Natural Hazards - Flooding”.

Overland Flow Paths are lines representing the predicted route of overland flow, based on analysis of a Digital Terrain Model (derived from aerial laser survey). Overland Flow Paths do not show the width or extent of flow.

Overland Flow Paths are based solely on the terrain and are indicative only.

Overland Flow Paths may flood depending on the amount of rain.

The Auckland Unitary Plan contains policies and rules relating to development and/or works within or adjacent to Overland Flow Paths.

Note: The terms “Flow Path” and “Flowpath” are used interchangeably.

Exposure Zones

New Zealand Standard 3604:2011E classifies all properties in New Zealand into zones based on environmental features including wind, earthquake, snow load and exposure. These zones are relevant to building requirements, such as strength of buildings, materials that should be used and maintenance. All building sites are classified as being in Exposure Zones Extreme Sea Spray, B, C, or D, depending on the severity of exposure to wind driven salt.

This property is classified as: Unknown or Unassessed Corrosion Zone

Unknown or unassessed - No known information is available relating to these sites. Recommended that specific sites and/or product designed and to consult suppliers information for specific durability requirements.

Coastal Erosion

This explanation appears on all LIMs, not just sites that may be susceptible to coastal erosion.

The map entitled “Natural Hazards - Coastal Erosion” shows information on potential coastal erosion and resulting land instability, if any, in relation to this site.

Coastal erosion is the wearing away of land due to coastal processes such as waves and currents. Coastal instability is the movement of land (typically as a landslide) resulting from the loss of support caused by coastal erosion.

Where applicable, the map shows lines that indicate areas susceptible to coastal instability and erosion (ASCIE) within the next 100 years. The lines do not show the future position of the coast. Rather, they show the landward edge of the area that might become unstable as a result of coastal erosion. The area between this line and the sea is considered to be potentially susceptible to erosion, or instability caused by erosion.

The lines represent three timescales, and take into account projected sea level rise based on carbon emission scenarios known as representative concentration pathways (RCP):

- 2050 (0.28 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2080 (0.55 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.18 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5)
- 2130 (1.52 m of sea level rise; RCP 8.5+)

The RCP projections are from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change fifth assessment report (2015), and the related sea level rise values align with Ministry for the Environment Coastal Hazards and Climate Change Guidance for Local Government (2017).

The lines are based on data from a regional study (“Predicting Auckland’s Exposure to Coastal Instability and Erosion”, available on the Council website). The lines may not take into account local variability, and are not intended for site-specific use.

Development on sites affected by potential coastal erosion may be subject to Auckland Unitary Plan activity controls and may require a detailed coastal hazard assessment report to be completed by a qualified expert.
